

Faculty Senate Resolution #24-31

Approved by the Faculty Senate: March 26, 2024

Approved by the Chancellor: May 8, 2024

University Environment Committee
Sustainability Designation Course Application Evaluation Rubric

Course Number & Name: _____

Department: _____

Lead Faculty: _____

Approval Status: _____

Points (Yes=2, No=0, Partly=1) _____

	Evident (Yes /No/ Partly)	Suggestions to strengthen course application
Syllabus includes ECU definition of sustainability.
Readings, assignments, and/or projects that teach students about healthy ecosystems are clearly documented in the syllabus.
Course materials and/or required readings illustrate sustainability challenges.
Sustainability as a professional and personal practice is evident in course content.
At least one structured reflection opportunity for students is integrated into course requirements.
The interconnections among economic, environmental, and/or social perspectives are defined in the syllabus.
Syllabus includes an assignment requiring students to demonstrate the ability to apply critical thinking in assessing the effects of human actions on Earth.
Additional questions for instructor submitting application:		